06_Scenario_v6.docx

Hi Phil,

This version does not have what Ralph has done (since he's still working on it, I thought it might be too confusing to combine just yet), but does have text added to the section about the chemicals that I ran past Kate. And, Ralph said in an earlier email that he's updating the values in Tables, so this version does not have those corrected yet.

Cheers,
Barb
